

Building Your Handshake Profile

Fill out this section with information on your major and graduation year.

Tell employers more about yourself and what you're looking for by adding a little blurb about your passions, skills, and goals.

The screenshot shows a Handshake profile page with several sections. On the left, there is a profile card with a student name, university, major, and graduation year. Below this is a progress bar showing 50% completion with buttons to add skills, documents, courses, and a profile picture. There is also a privacy notice and a 'Make Profile Public to Employers' button. The main content area includes sections for 'My Journey' (with a text input field), 'Education' (listing University of Virginia with major, department, and GPA), 'Work & Volunteer Experience' (listing Central Park), 'Organizations & Extracurriculars' (listing National Eagle Scout Association), and 'Courses' (with a dropdown menu and an 'Add' button).

Add information about your academic history here. This could be any school you have attended or are currently enrolled in.

Add information about your experience here. This will help employers get a better idea of what you've been involved in outside of school.

Add information about your extracurriculars. This will help employers get a better idea of what you're passionate about.

You can add more detailed information about the courses you've completed here. Stick to classes that are related to your career aspirations.
